Message

MANAGER/DIRECTOR

A lot of changes are coming in the academic field- both at the ground and national level. Over the past twenty years or so, technological advancement has disrupted many established industries, creating new professionals, new academic fields, and new measures of workplace competency. Many institutions have developed innovative and creative means to leverage the use of technology for education. The COVID-19 pandemic disruptions in the education field have increased the pace of implanting technopedagogy in higher education. Bharata Mata College has been trying to attain the goal of excellence so far providing “education for all”, keeping its motto high, “For God and Country”. The need for strategic approaches to technology integration has come to be viewed as an imperative for excellence. I wish and pray, let this endeavor add fuel to the journey of the college to become an autonomous institution.

A monthly interdepartmental collaborative program titled “Arivatidhi” was inaugurated on 29/09/2022, Thursday at 3:30 PM. The title is a portmanteau word combining two Malayalam words- “Arivu,” meaning knowledge and “Atidhi,” meaning guest. As the title suggests the program aims to bring a faculty from aided departments as a ‘guest’ to have an interactive session with the students of the Department of Marketing. The recurring program proposes to expose the students to thoughts and discussions on disciplines other than their subjects of study. The talks and discussions would cover topics rooted in the respective disciplines of the visiting faculties, but would also be of associative relevance to the students of the marketing department. The program was coordinated by Ms. Anjana.S and the faculties of the department of Marketing.

The program to be conducted in recurring episodes began on Thursday at the Gandhi square lawn. The first chapter of the series was inaugurated by the Principal, Dr. Johnson. K.M with the topic- Democracy and the Public Sphere. The welcome address was delivered by the Head of the Department of Marketing, Dr. Sujith. A.S. The open air, the lush green lawn and the students seated on the steps beneath the bamboo groves became attentive listeners to the hour-long talk by the principal on the origin, history and the varied aspects of the public sphere. Further discussions brought into view its importance and its relation to the democratic system of government. The session further shed light upon specific functional relevance of such public spheres. Upon conclusion, the vote of thanks was given by Ms. Anjana.S, Assistant Professor.

The online webinar on the topic “Introducing Youth Work in the UK / MA Youth Work and Community Development Course” was conducted on 14th October 2022 at 3pm in AV room of Bharata Mata College Thrikakara. The programme was organised by Leeds Beckett University School of Health. All the 1st year and 2nd year social work trainees attend the webinar with the faculties in Bharata Mata School of Social Work. The webinar was taken by the social workers Alan smith and Salisbury Petra and Alan Smith introduced himself to the audience. The session was based on the youth work in the community in UK.

In UK, Social Work is a statutory service which often is directed by legal process to support and guide young people and their families. A major theme in the UK is the safeguarding of individuals and support for the most vulnerable. Social Workers can often work alongside Youth and Community Workers, they share many common values, but their engagement is usually directed by a statutory or legal duty.

Then Alan Smith takes the session about youth and community work and also teaching. Youth and Community work takes place where young people are at and is led by young people and their needs. Youth Work helps young people learn about themselves, others and society, through informal educational activities which combine enjoyment, challenge and learning. Youth workers work primarily with young people aged between 13 and 19 but may in some cases extend this to younger age groups and those aged up to 25. Their work seeks to promote young people's personal and social development and enable them to have a voice, influence and place in their communities and society as a whole.

Teachers are most often employed to work within Schools where they will deliver a specific curriculum which is decided by either the Governing Body or Government, the engagement of young people is mandated by law and failure to attend can result in court proceedings. Many schools employ staff including youth workers to support pupils through pastoral teams, mentors and behaviour management – but the prime function is a legal requirement for children to attend.

After the session, social work trainees get an opportunity to interact with the resource person. The social work trainees Abel and Santhosh asked some questions about the fee structure and why they provide sterilized needles for the youth ,head of the department Dr. Sheena Rajan Pilip and Assistant Professor Dr. Elsa Mary Jacob also enquire about the course. Cup Of Life

Number of Participants 31

MSW

Date :30/08/2022

The Cup of Life initiative aims to create a revolutionary change in society by creating awareness of a menstrual product that will change the menstruation experience for the better. Through this campaign, we aim to change how society perceives menstruation, virginity, and women's freedom in general along with breaking various myths regarding these topics. The campaign is an initiative of Sri. Hibi Eden MP and the CSR project by Muthoot finance in association with IMA Cochin and the District Administration, Ernakulam.

The project was established with the collaboration and support of other educational institutions under the Ernakulam district. The Bharata Mata school of social work, Thrikkakara was a associated partner of this campaign. The msw trainees were allocated to volunteer for the distribution and creating awareness among the community in the respective wards of Ernakulam district. The campaign was conducted on

The four to seven days of a woman's menstrual cycle are days of unending pain, nausea, low self-confidence, and limited mobility. This pain only worsens as our society has taught her to keep it a secret. This makes it hard for them to seek help or share it with most people around them. Menstruation is a topic of restricted conversations that happens only between women or a group of female friends.

Men could not be a part of her pain or support her through those days of torture even if they wanted to. The only thing that they could do it to run down to the pharmacy, buy her a pack of pads, and give it to them. In Addition to all these hassles, there is also a socially constructed label of being a virgin that looms above every woman’s head as a mark of her honour.

Our society is evolving, the times are changing as we learn better. We are witnessing the rise of a generation that is more empathetic to the struggles of females and disapproving of social myths. They are symbols of the change in the way society perceives menstruation. Cup of Life embraces this change and aims to be one of the first responders to this movement.

‘Bloody revolution ’ the logo launch of the campaign was done by the Malayalam actor jayasurya. The hashtag # Break the taboo was spread after this by many celebrities for promoting this culture. The orientation for the students where given in their respective colleges before hand so that they could perform their tasks effectively. The class for the msw trainees of the Bharata Mata school of social work was given by Shelfy the staff of ‘Sahrudaya’. Sahrudaya is the brand name of Welfare Services Ernakulam for social work and through this it reiterates its commitment to social ministry. Welfare services Ernakulam is a registered charitable and non-profit organization under the Archdiocese of Ernakulam-Angamaly based at Ernakulam district of Kerala. The trainees were divided into groups and allocated each wards . The wards allocated are cardinal nagar,thoppil,ponnurunni,thripunithara,cherai,njarakkal,nayarambhalam,kaloor,kacheripadi,paravoor and puthanpalli.

The cup of life was a new campaign which was to make the people aware about breaking the taboos and proceeding in the life in a better way . The change in the mind set of the people was created by this programme. The initiative took a path change in the conventional thinking of the people.
